- 1) The Chair of all meetings of the Society shall be the President or his or her delegate, unless otherwise specified in the By-Laws;
- 2) The Chair shall convene all meetings promptly at the time advertised, but a meeting shall not commence until quorum is attained;
- 3) The Chair is responsible for the upholding of Standing Orders and for conducting the process of debate on substantive motions and procedural motions;
- 4) The Chair has precedence to speak over all other speakers when giving directions or rulings;
- 5) The Chair is responsible for maintaining order and may order persons asking unreasonable disturbances to leave the meeting;
- 6) The Chair may impose a maximum time limit on the debate;
- 7) The Chair may temporarily vacate the chair and nominate an acting Chair for the period of their absence;
- 8) The Chair shall have an additional casting vote in the event of a tie;
- 9) The Chair shall ensure that adequate minutes are taken by the Secretary or another councillor as appointed by the Chair;
- 10) The Chair shall interpret these Standing Orders when required to do so, subject to the meeting substituting a different interpretation by way of dissent.

2 Agenda

- 1) Except in the case of General Meetings, the agenda for each Council meeting shall be provided in advance to all members of the Society entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.
- 2) In the case of General Meetings, the agenda for the meeting shall be provided to all members of the Society at least three (3) clear days before the meeting, unless there is a motion to be voted upon at the meeting that requires a special majority to pass, in which case the agenda must be provided to all members of the Society at least twenty one (21) clear days before the meeting.
- 3) The agenda for a meeting shall include an opportunity for any “other business” to be raised.

- 4) The initial order of the agenda for a meeting shall be determined by the Chair.
- 5) The agenda may be rearranged at the will of the meeting.

3 Foreshadowing

- 1) Motions for “other business” may be foreshadowed at any time during a meeting, in which case they shall take precedence in the order in which they were foreshadowed.

4 Quorum

- 1) The quorum for General Meetings shall be fifteen (15) members of the Society, or over half the number of Council members, whichever is greater.
- 2) The quorum for Council Meetings shall be more than half the number of Council members.
- 3) There shall be no quorum requirement for meetings of the Society that are not General Meetings or Council Meetings.

5 Attendance at Meetings

- 1) Members of the Society may attend and speak at any meeting of the Society, except for such parts of a meeting as constitute in camera proceedings, during which only Council members are entitled to be present.

6 In camera Proceedings

- 1) General meetings of the Society may become in camera proceedings if the following procedure is followed:
  - f) A resolution is passed by a special majority of the Council members present “that the meeting move in camera”;
  - g) The discussions and any resolutions are minuted; and
  - h) A resolution is passed that “the meeting move out of camera”.
- 5) Discussion which takes place during in camera proceedings must not under any circumstances be revealed to people who are not entitled to be present.

Part 2: Substantive Motions

7 General

- 1) Every substantive motion must have a mover and a seconder before discussion will commence.
- 6) A motion for particular action should be clearly expressed and state the action intended to follow from it. The Chair should require a motion which is unclear or has not stated an effect to be re-expressed by the mover.

8 Speaking Rights

- 1) The mover of a motion shall speak first to explain the motion and shall have a right of reply to speak last on the motion but cannot introduce new material.
- 2) The seconder of a motion may be the second speaker for a motion, or may speak at any later time.
- 3) All other members present may speak once on each matter.
- 4) By permission of the chair, and when no other person is speaking, a person who has already spoken may speak briefly in personal explanation of previous remarks, but must state concisely the point to be explained and must keep to that point.
- 5) Where appropriate, the Chair shall attempt to call alternative speakers for and against a motion.
- 6) All speeches shall be relevant to the motion.

9 Amendments

- 1) Any member may move an amendment to a motion before the Chair.
- 2) All amendments are to be relevant to the main motion.
- 3) An amendment may not simply negate the effect of the main motion.
- 4) Amendments are to be dealt with as they arise.
- 5) While an amendment is under consideration, no other amendment may be moved.
- 6) An amendment may not itself be amended.
- 7) The mover of an amendment may alter the amendment with the leave of the meeting.

- 8) The speaking rights for an amendment are the same as those for a main motion.

10 Questions

- 1) Any member may move an amendment to a motion before the Chair.
- 2) The Chair shall allow questions to be put to the mover of a motion if appropriate.

11 Withdrawal

- 1) A motion may be withdrawn by the mover at any time, although the seconder has a right to move it again immediately.

12 Call for motion

- 1) Any member may move that the motion or amendment under discussion be decided at once by moving that “the question be put”.
- 2) If the Chair agrees, the mover may exercise their right of reply and the Chair shall put the motion or amendment to vote.
- 3) Where any substantive motion has been under discussion for the duration of the maximum time limit set by the Chair, the Chair shall immediately put the motion unless a motion for the extension of the debate is immediately moved and passed.
- 4) At the time in which a motion or amendment is put, or where any member requests it during discussion, the Chair shall read the text of the motion or amendment under discussion.

13 Voting

- 1) Unless otherwise specified, a vote is to be passed by a simple majority of those entitled to vote.
- 2) Voting shall be decided by show of hands.
- 3) If so required by a simple majority of the meeting, the Chair shall order and carry out a secret ballot.
- 4) Members of the Council may vote by proxy at any meeting of the Council or General Meetings provided that the following procedure be followed:
  - a) The Council member who is assigning their vote must provide the Secretary of the meeting with a proxy form, nominating another Council member to be their proxy, containing the name, position and signature, whether electronic or otherwise, of the Council member assigning their vote.

- b) The proxy form must impose directions to the proxy, a time limit for which the proxy remains valid, and any restrictions to which their proxy is subject.
- c) A proxy may be withdrawn any time in writing.
- d) Council members who have assigned their votes to a proxy may not vote in person at the meeting in question unless they have withdrawn their proxy or that proxy has lapsed.

14 Records

- 1) All results shall be recorded in the minutes, and any member may have recorded in the minutes their vote for or against a motion or abstention.
- 7) A simple majority of the meeting can request that the count of the result be recorded in the minutes.
- 8) The minutes of any meeting of the Society shall be made available to any member of the Society on request. This provision does not apply to minutes of in camera proceedings.
- 9) Minutes of in camera proceedings shall only be made available to persons who were entitled to be present at the in camera proceedings in question. However, the text of resolutions passed during in camera proceedings must be made available on request to any member of the Society.

Part 3: Procedural Motions

15 Procedural Motions

- 1) Procedural motions are the proper form for resolving a disagreement between the mover of the procedural motion and:
  - a) The present speaker;
  - b) The mover of the present substantive motion or amendment; or
  - c) The Chair.

16 Procedure

- 10) A procedural motion is introduced by a member interrupting the speaker or Chair. Procedural motions are to be addressed to the Chair. The person complained against shall be allowed a reply, as appropriate, but no general discussion is allowed, and the motion should be voted on immediately.

17 Precedence

- 1) A procedural motion takes precedence over substantive business, and shall be determined before returning to substantive business, unless interrupted by another procedural motion of greater precedence.
- 2) The order of precedence of types of procedural motions is the order in which they are set out in this Part, the later motions having greater precedence.

18 Motions relating to the Present Speaker

- 1) A member may move that the present speaker cease speaking. The Chair has discretion to reject this motion if it is imposed before the speaker has had a reasonable opportunity to express their views, or has spoken only briefly.
- 2) A member whose character or actions have been referred to by the present speaker may immediately rise to make a personal explanation or rebuttal of the matters referred to, or may exercise such a right when the speaker finishes speaking.

19 Motions relating to the Present Motion or the Agenda

- 1) A member may move that the process of the present motion be adjourned. If a motion so adjourned is not returned to in the present meeting it shall automatically be adjourned to the following meeting.
- 2) A member may move that the time allowed for the present motion be extended in the manner prescribed by Section 12 (3) of these Standing Orders.

- 3) A member may move that the agenda be re-ordered, as allowed in Part 1. However, it shall not be in order to exclude the consideration of any “other business”.

20 Motions relating to the Chair or the Meeting

- 1) A member may move that the meeting be adjourned, either for a brief period or to another time and place. The meeting may also be adjourned by a suggestion of the Chair approved by the meeting.
- 2) A member may move that the time allowed for meeting be extended either before or after the completion of the allowed time. An extension be for no more than one half hour. Successive extensions are permitted upon the completion of each extension.
- 3) A point of order consists of drawing the attention of the Chair to a suggested breach of the Standing Orders of the Constitution. The chair shall consider whether the breach of order occurred and proceed accordingly.
- 4) A member may move that a ruling by the Chair be dissented from. If such a motion is carried, the Chair shall provide an alternative ruling, or otherwise fulfill the intention of the dissent as appropriate.
- 5) A member may move that the person in the chair vacate the chair. If such a motion is carried by special majority, the members present shall immediately elect a different person to the chair.

Part 4: Adjournment & Closure

21 Adjournment

- 1) Upon the completion of the time allowed for the meeting, the meeting is adjourned and any unfinished business on the agenda is adjourned to the next meeting.

22 Closure

- 1) Upon the completion of the business set down in the agenda, and if there is no other business, the Chair shall close the meeting.
